

THE ROLE MODEL

STYLING AND EDITORIAL BY
BEAR BRANDEGEE
PHOTO BY AIMEE OBIDINSKI

Judy Cheteyan is at home in the artful gallery of the Society for Contemporary Craft where her husband, Michael, founded a scholarship in her name. The endowment provides a coveted summer internship to promising college students. Determined to help young people find their own voice and passion in life, Judy is also active on the KidsVoice board, an organization dedicated to protecting and advocating the rights of abused and neglected children. Even her global business, ABDI, was launched to help not-for-profit organizations meet their customer service and product fulfillment needs. Judy and Michael live the life well-lived as they serve the community and their clients with gracious commitment. F

Bear Brandegee is a fashion writer and personal stylist for extraordinary women. She carries the Doncaster Collection year round. Contact Bear at wardrobe@bearbrandegee.com.

Judy's dress available at eb Pepper, Shadyside. 412-683-3815; shoes from Littles Shoes, Squirrel Hill. 412-521-3530; and jewelry from Society for Contemporary Craft, Strip District. 412-261-7003. Photographed at the Society for Contemporary Craft, www.contemporarycraft.org.